Canada I Hear You Calling

Words & Music by N. FRASER ALLAN

Introduction Allegro

VOICE

PIANO

I'm a long long way from home I'm a I am now in sight of shore and I'm rov - er and I roam, From ice - land down to sun ny It - al - sure I'll rove no more For the groves of spread-ing map - le trees I

y. I'm in Russ - ia in the spring where I see. As the ship nears to the land, on the hear the sleigh-bells ring, Then a - way I go and sail the south-ern bridge I an - xious stand, Look ing for the maid who waits so pat - lent-sea ly There's a long - ing in my heart, so from There I see her runn - ing down, to the wand-ring ways I'll part and I think I'll pack my grip and leave to - dock in ging - ham gown, and she waves her snow white ker-chief at me day. For the count - ry of my birth, 'tis the too. Then I call a - load to her, far a - dear - est land on earth, So I'll just go take a ship and sail a - way bove the en - gines churr, I am com - ing home to Can - a - da and you.

Chorus

To
Oh Can - a - da I hear you call - ing while the map - le leaves are fall - ing and I'm far a - cross the sea, No more I'll roam I'm com - ing home to the girl I left be-hind, for I'm as lone-ly as can be, I long to see her blue eyes just the col- or of the north-ern skies for she waits pat-ient-ly, I'll just drop in to town and then I'll set-tle down, Oh!

Can - a - da I hear you call - ing me. Oh Can - a - me
